TOURIST INFORMATION

Santiago also known as Santiago de Chile, is the capital and largest city of Chile. Chile's steady economic growth has transformed Santiago into one of Latin America's most modern metropolitan areas, with extensive suburban development, dozens of shopping centers, and impressive high-rise architecture. It is an Alpha(-) World City and has a very modern transport infrastructure, including the steadily growing underground Santiago Metro, an effort at modernizing public bus transport and a free flow toll-based ring road and inner city highway system, part of which is tunneled underneath a large section of the city's main river Mapocho connecting the Eastern and Western extremes of the city in a 25-minute drive. Santiago is the regional headquarters to many multinational, and financial centers.

Santiago has a cosmopolitan diverse culture. Tourists who traveled there have associated Santiago as a "Little Europe of the Southern Hemisphere"

We hope you enjoy your visit with us!
